8% of 8% of vibrant's 7% distance, realistic illustrations and unparalleled teaching support make oxford a picture dictionary program what each classroom needs to build the vocabulary of students, reading and critical thinking skills. The English/Arabic dictionary is the main component of the Oxford Picture Dictionary program, building students' vocabulary, reading and critical thinking skills for success in their daily lives. It has all the new content from the monolingual dictionary. The dictionary provides vocabulary retention with over 4,000 words, 421 verbs and practical activities. Updated content including job search, career planning, soft skills, digital literacy, internet research and health insurance prepares students to meet the requirements of their daily lives. Updated activities prepare students for work, academic training and citizenship. The content is organized within 12 thematic units, including daily language, people, housing, food and recreation. Each item starts with an Intro page (new in this edition) and ends with a single page of history, with one or two pages of subthematically entering new words in a realistic visual context and easy-to-learn pieces. The target new vocabulary is listed, and simple exercises help students put their new words into practice. The pages of the story include pre-reading questions to build previews and predict skills and questions after reading and role-playing activities to support critical thinking and encourage students to use the new language they have learned. Rich visual contexts recycle words from the device. This structure is designed to meet the needs of multi-level classrooms. Supporting components include more guidance on this topic, as well as assessment of needs and lesson planning. (available only in English).
